PATROL KNIFE TACTICS

$275

16 HOURS

Course Overview: This 2-day (16-hour) course is specifically designed for law enforcement officers, focusing on the tactical use of folding knives as both tools and defensive weapons. Whether you're an experienced officer or new to the field, this training provides essential knowledge. Here's what participants can expect:

Knife Familiarization:

- Understand the anatomy and features of tactical folding knives.
- Explore different blade types, locking mechanisms, and grips.

1. Selection and Maintenance:

- Learn how to choose an appropriate duty knife.
- Discuss proper care, sharpening, and maintenance.

Legal Considerations:

- Understand the legal framework surrounding knife use.
- Explore state and local regulations related to carrying and deploying knives.

Carry Options for Duty:

- Discuss practical ways to carry a knife on duty.
- Consider accessibility, concealment, and comfort.

Drawing and Deployment Techniques:

- Master safe and efficient methods for deploying a knife.
- Practice drawing from various carry positions.

Body Mechanics and Distance Management:

- Explore effective body positioning during knife encounters.
- Understand the importance of maintaining distance.

Handling and Targeting Considerations:

- Learn defensive techniques for disarming and controlling an attacker.
- Understand vital target areas for self-defense.

Unarmed Response Tactics:

- Discuss scenarios where a knife may be the last resort.
- Explore transitioning between empty-hand techniques and knife use.

Ground Survival and Escape:

- Prepare for situations where you're on the ground.
- Learn techniques to escape and regain control.

Emergency Wound Management:

- Understand basic first aid for knife wounds.
- Explore techniques to stop bleeding and provide initial care.

Reality-Based Training:

- Engage in scenario-based drills to apply learned skills.
- Practice decision-making under stress.

Remember, this course fills a critical gap in officer training, and its demand reflects the need for practical, real-world knife tactics. Participants who successfully complete the program will receive a certificate for their personnel files.
