

BLUE SHIELD TACTICAL

BLUESHIELDTACTICAL.COM

Course Overview: In this scenario-based training program, law enforcement professionals will gain a comprehensive understanding of use-of-force incidents, documentation, and courtroom testimony. Whether you're a patrol officer, supervisor, or command staff member, this course provides practical insights. Here's what the program covers:

Reasonable Force vs. Excessive Force:

- Explore the legal standards for using force.
- Understand the delicate balance between effective control and excessive actions.

Court Case Review:

- Analyze relevant court decisions related to use of force.
- Learn from precedents and legal interpretations.

Details Missing in Most Reports:

- Discuss common pitfalls in use-of-force documentation.
- Understand the importance of thorough reporting.

Types of Resistance:

- Identify different levels of resistance officers encounter.
- Explore appropriate responses based on the situation.

Levels of Officer Control:

- Learn about verbal, physical, and less-lethal control methods.
- Understand when each level is appropriate.

Mental and Physical Responses by Officers:

- Explore the psychological and physiological aspects of high-stress encounters.
- Discuss decision-making under pressure.

Group Discussions and Scenario-Based Participation:

- Engage in interactive exercises to reinforce learning.
- Practice articulating force decisions in realistic scenarios.

Common Terms Used in Reports:

- Familiarize participants with terminology for accurate documentation.
- Ensure consistency and clarity in reporting.

Documenting Use of Force:

- Master effective report writing specific to use-of-force incidents.
- Understand what details matter and how to convey them.

Officer-Involved Shootings:

- Discuss protocols and considerations for these critical incidents.
- Explore best practices for documentation and testimony.

Hollywood vs. Reality:

- Address misconceptions about use of force perpetuated by media.
- Ground discussions in practical, real-world scenarios.

Courtroom Testimony Skills:

- Learn techniques for confidently presenting evidence in court.
- Understand the role of officers as credible witnesses.

Remember, this course bridges the gap between theory and practice, equipping officers with the knowledge and skills

USE OF FORCE FROM THE STREET TO THE COURTROOM $149 8 HOURS

January 15th, 2027
Texas City, TX

CONTACT US

888-970-4249

Blueshieldtactical.com

